18.105 Expressway Corridor – update

The Planning & Projects Clerk read the following report from AVDC:

Earlier this month, Highways England announced 'Option B' as its preferred corridor for the long-anticipated Oxford-Cambridge expressway. This was one of three potential corridors identified in the National Infrastructure Commission's 2017 report and roughly follows the route of East-West rail link. Around 70% of the corridor falls within Aylesbury Vale, making it of critical importance to the council and Aylesbury Vale communities.

The government's next step will be to determine the actual route. AVDC will be working with Bucks CC, the Local Enterprise Partnerships and other partners on the route options to ensure proper mitigation for communities that are affected by the project. We will be pressing government to engage much more widely with the public community and environmental groups than it has so far.

There will shortly be an AVDC web page about the expressway, which includes links to key documents and reports.

18.106 VALP - update

The Planning & Projects Clerk read the following report from AVDC:

At the end of the VALP hearing sessions the Inspector indicated that he would be sending his Interim findings to the Council in the next four to six weeks, after having given an indication that he believed that the Plan could be found sound (subject to a number of modifications).

On 29 August 2018 we received an Interim report from the examining Inspector. On 7 September 2018 we wrote to the Inspector raising various points in relation to these interim findings. The Inspector is currently considering our points, which is likely to take a couple of weeks from now.

The interim findings and our response to these are now being published as examination documents, and this note is intended to summarise the next steps.

The interim findings contain a number of points which we will need to act upon, but the most significant of these are the Inspector's views that the housing requirement should be increased by around 1,600 and distribution should be more focused in the north of the district. Following legal advice from our QC advising that the quickest and most pragmatic course of action is to accept the Inspector's findings, we are now beginning the process of commissioning further evidence to help us determine which site or sites would be the most suitable to meet this increased requirement and adjusted distribution.

We will prepare a series of modifications to the Plan and supporting evidence to reflect the Inspector's interim findings, and once we have completed this work, these will be published for six weeks public consultation. Although exact timings cannot be given, we expect this to be in early 2019. The modifications, along with any comments received relating to them, will be submitted to the Inspector. The Inspector may decide it is necessary to hold further hearing sessions before finalising his report. He will then issue his final report, which we either have to accept in full, or withdraw the Plan.

18.107 Aylesbury Garden Town- update

The Planning & Projects Clerk read the following report from AVDC:

Work is now underway on the Masterplan to provide the framework for the future of Aylesbury Garden Town through to 2050. Following a highly competitive tender process the project team have selected Alan Baxter Ltd, a design consultancy specialising in urban and conservation services, to work with local partners and agencies to prepare the overall masterplan and associated delivery plan. Alan Baxter have wide-ranging experience of the government's Garden Villages, Towns and Cities programme, including work on Ebbsfleet Garden City and the award winning Loftus Garden Village in South Wales.

This work will help define what makes Aylesbury Garden Town special, providing design guidance and also setting out how the key physical and social infrastructure can be delivered. Community input is crucial and it will draw on all the feedback that's been received from residents, stakeholders, partners and members and through the 'Have Your Say' section on the website. Further engagement sessions will be taking place later in the autumn.
